TASK 1.56: WORD IDENTIFICATION SKILLS - ADMINISTRATION and SCORING

Directions

1.56A - Read Words *

Locate the materials in the student materials. Present the cards one at a time in the order shown in the left hand column of the scoring table. Say to the student, “Read each word as I show you the card.” Continue presenting words. Prompt the student after a delay with no response. Record the student’s points in the scoring box. Mark a check (✓) if the student provides a correct response. Record incorrect responses verbatim. The student may receive partial credit for identifying any correct sound in the word. For example, if the student was presented with the word “dog” and responded with “dig” they would receive 1 point for correctly identifying the /d/ and /g/ sounds, but would not receive full credit of 2 points as they did not correctly read the whole word.

Points for reading:	Word completely correct	=2
	ANY correct sound	=1
	Incorrect	=0

* NOTE: If the student cannot identify the words using expressive communication (speech, sign language, or communication device), follow these directions: Randomly place all of the words face up on the table and say, “Point to the word after I say it.” Continue saying words in the order listed in the scoring table. Prompt student after a delay with no response.

2.56A-B Read Passages

Locate the appropriate materials in the student materials. Say to the student, “I am going to read a story aloud to you. Listen carefully to the story. When I’m finished, I will ask you some questions.” Begin with Story 1. Place the story card in front of the student so they can follow along as the story is read out loud. After reading the story, the administrator will say, “Now I’m going to ask you some questions. Give me your best answer from what you remember about the story.” Read each of the three answer choices to the student.

Use the scoring guide and questions provided on the following pages. Present the student with the appropriate response strip from the student materials and ask the questions in the order listed in the left hand column of the scoring table, telling the student to choose an answer from the answer strip provided. If the student is unable to remember the story, repeat the steps above and read the story a second time to the student. The response options may be read aloud to the student. The story also may be read in small sections with appropriate questions asked throughout the passage. Some students may respond verbally to the questions instead of pointing to or reading the response strips. In this case, please use the scoring guide and the scoring page to give the student the correct points. Continue in a similar manner with Story 2.

Scoring Guide

Main character: Most repeated appearance of a person (by name or as a pronoun)

Main Idea: A simple statement of what the story is about literally

Detail (inferred): A summary statement from the story

Setting: Description of where the story takes place

Theme: More abstract summary of the story developed from various (non-specific) events occurring throughout the story

Fact: Description of an object or event that appears in the story

Opinion: Description of something that is subjective from a person’s point of view

Scoring: Each option is presented on a separate card and represents a word or phrase that is (a) specific and correct (given 2 points), (b) general and correct (1 point), or (c) incorrect (0 points). Task 2.56 B is scored 2 points for correct or 0 points for incorrect. Circle the correct response on the scoring table as the student responds. For students responding verbally to a question, write the response and score later if needed. Allow for oral comprehension knowledge if the student cannot read the cards (answer options may be read aloud to the student).

Note: There may be more than one correct 1 point answer than what is represented in the response strips or on the scoring protocol. The administrator must read the three possible answer choices to the student, and the student selects from those limited choices.

CONTENT AND STRUCTURE - ADMINISTRATION*2.56A-B Read Passages*Story 1: Lisa's Trip to Fish Camp

It was the first day of summer and Lisa was excited for this trip. She and her friend Tina were going up river to the fishing camp. Lisa's parents were already at the camp, and her grandpa was driving the boat. A few kids at school said that fishing camp was not fun. But Lisa and Tina loved it. As they rode in the boat, the two friends could feel the wind blowing their hair and the sun shining down on them. The boat was carrying supplies for the camp that grandpa had bought at the store. As the boat came around the last bend, Lisa saw the tents and her parents. The boat was almost there.
